

7-9-2013

Building Bridges: Developing Your IP Network with the NYSBA IP Law Section

New York Law School

Institute for
INFORMATION LAW & POLICY
at New York Law School

and

NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW SECTION

Present:

Building Bridges: Developing Your IP Network with the NYSBA IP Law Section

A New York State Bar Association Intellectual Property Law Section program
hosted by the Institute for Information Law and Policy

Tuesday, July 9, 2013

185 West Broadway, Events Space, W201

6:00–7:00 p.m. Panel

7:00–8:00 p.m. Reception

This program features a panel of IP law practitioners from various industries and stages in their careers who will discuss intellectual property law practice generally, and specifically how involvement with the NYSBA has enhanced their practice or has grown their network. As a part of the NYSBA Diversity Challenge, this event will focus on encouraging diversity within the profession by providing networking and mentorship opportunities for students who are interested in learning more about potential careers in IP, as well as young attorneys who are interested in becoming more involved with the IP Law section. The panel will be followed by a networking reception.

Panelists:

Robert Doerfler, Trademark Senior Counsel, Harley-Davidson Motor Company

Anil George, Vice President & Senior IP Counsel, NBA Properties Inc.

Brooke Erdos Singer, Partner, Davis & Gilbert LLP

Margaret Walker, Associate General IP Counsel, Xerox Corporation

Moderator:

Nyasha S. Foy '12, Graduate Fellow, Institute for Information Law and Policy

To Register, visit www.nysba.org/IPBuildingBridges

Last day to register is Tuesday, July 2, 2013