Re: Post-Graduate Clerkship Beginning Fall of 1993.

Dear Judge Miner:

I attribute my achievements at New York Law School to my dedication to succeed, and plan to continue this dedication after graduation. That is why I am applying to Your Honor's chambers.

During the past two years, I have interned for two trial judges, spent a summer at a small, general practice firm, and served as a research assistant to two professors. This summer, I will be working for Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson in Manhattan. Through these experiences, coupled with my editorial work on the Law Review, I have gained confidence in my writing and analytical skills which will enable me to succeed as your clerk.

I am available for an interview at your convenience and have forwarded a writing sample under separate cover. Therefore, please regard this application as an invitation to discuss the clerkship.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Very truly yours,

Christopher P. Giordano
