OFFICE OF THE DEAN
212-431-2840
To the Class of 1992:

Since you entered New York Law School, we have moved dramatically forward toward our goal of becoming the premier urban law school in the country. I am certain that you share with me a sense of tremendous pride in what has been accomplished. For each of you, at the brink of a new career, there is still much to accomplish - as there is for the Law School. I look forward to your return to your legal alma mater, so that we may continue to share, with that same great pride, the School's achievements.

I feel honored to have been your Dean. On behalf of the entire NYLS community, I wish you great success in all your endeavors.

Sincerely,

James F. Simon
Dean

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

As the 1991-92 President of the Student Bar Association, I have dedicated much time and effort to representing the interests of the student body with the goal of promoting our education at New York Law School and ultimate entry into the legal profession. Often asked why I made the time to do so, I use this opportunity to respond: to foster, for all reapers, the most fertile ground possible.

As we celebrate our graduation from New York Law School, I would like to thank my fellow classmates for providing me with the opportunity to work toward the betterment of our educational experience; and only hope that everyone can look back at the past three years, with all of its tense moments, challenges and "memorable evenings" at Stan's with feelings of satisfaction and confidence to confront and successfully conquer the new life experiences awaiting us all.

Considerate la vostra semenza:
Fatti non foste a vivere come bruti,
Ma per seguire virtute e conoscenza.

Dante, Il Inferno

(Know well the seed that gave you birth:
For you were not made to live your lives as brutes,
But to be followers of truth and knowledge.)

Yours sincerely,
Elizabeth Colantonio (Below, Left)

To Michael Stafford,

The Impossible Dream

And I know, if I'll only be true
to this glorious quest,
that my heart will lie peaceful and calm,
when I'm laid to rest,
And the world will be better for this;
That one man scorned and covered with scars,
still strove with his last ounce of courage,
to reach the unreachable stars.

lyrics by Joe Darion.
