The Unified Court System (UCS) is undergoing one of its most fundamental changes with the introduction of mandatory, presumptive alternative dispute resolution for a variety of filed claims across the State of New York. Hear from UCS leadership and learn what will be involved, what opportunities are being forged for mediators and arbitrators, and how presumptive ADR systems are being designed and implemented.

MODERATOR:

Danielle Shalov

Adjunct Professor
New York Law School

SPEAKERS:

Lisa Courtney, Statewide ADR
Coordinator, NYS Unified Court System

Joan G. Levenson, Principal Law
Clerk to Hon. Deborah A. Kaplan,
Administrative Judge, New York County

Dan Weitz, Director at Division of Professional & Court Services, NYS
Unified Court System
