

3-1-1988

Counselor, March 1988

New York Law School

COUNSELOR

A NEWSLETTER FOR THE NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL COMMUNITY

March 1, 1988

PHONATHON '88

Phonathon '88, which began on Monday, February 29th, is a two week effort on the part of the New York Law School community to increase scholarship support. Its' success is contingent upon volunteer participation from students, faculty, staff, administrators and alumni joining in a shared effort to increase alumni giving.

Phonathon is a fun, social and rewarding event in which those involved will be given an opportunity to have a good time while also doing their part to support New York Law School.

All participants will receive a free lunch and a NYLS mug which will be distributed at every volunteer session. In addition, a $100 cash prize will be awarded to the Phonathon '88 volunteer who has raised the highest dollar amount of pledges during the phonathon period. All phonathon sessions will be held in the Small Conference Room, 5th Floor, 47 Worth Street.

Please fill out the Volunteer Form on page 5 and return it to the Office Of Public Affairs, 6th Floor, 57 Worth Street. Thank you in advance for your volunteer support!!!

JEWISH LAW STUDENTS ASSOC. NEWS

Yaakov Rubin, President of the Israel Bar Association, will be the guest speaker at a lecture sponsored by the Jewish Law Students Association. Mr. Rubins' topic, "Criminal Justice in the Occupied Territories," will be presented March 8th, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. in the Student Lounge. A Wine and Cheese buffet will be served. All are invited to attend.

LIBRARY NEWS

Carl Yirka, Associate Librarian, attended the Legal Tech Exhibition on Tuesday, Jan. 23, 1988. The exhibition featured the latest developments in technology designed for the legal profession. The exhibition was held at the Sheraton Center in New York City.

Posted daily in the lobby area adjacent to the Froessel Library are the most recent Supreme Court decisions printed from Westlaw/Lexis. This is an informational service provided by the Library to help keep students and faculty apprised of current events. All are encouraged to take advantage of this service.

The library will be selling Exam Packets for the first year students on Wednesday, Mar. 2, 1988. Packets may be purchased from the Reserve Desk in the Froessel Reading Room.

NYCLA NEWS

New York County Lawyers' Association will be sponsoring a forum evening to discuss "Sports and the Law - Collective Bargaining V. Free Agency." This event will take place on Thursday, March 24th at 5:45 pm. The guest speakers will be Gary Bettman, Esq., General Counsel, National Basketball Association; David Fishof, President David Fishof Productions and Larry Fleisher, Esq., General Counsel, National Basketball Association Players' Association. The forum is free and will be held in the auditorium of NYCLA on 14 Vesey Street.

FACULTY NEWS

The Bulletin of the American Academy of Psychiatry and Law has just published Professor Michael Perlin's article, "The Supreme Court and the Mentally Disabled Criminal Defendant: Recent Developments," an adaption of his Arizona article, "The Supreme Court, the Mentally Disabled Criminal Defendant, and Symbolic Values: Random Decisions, Hidden Rationales, or 'Doctrinal Abyss?'"

Professor Lung-chu Chen was elevated from Chairperson-elect to Chairperson of the Section of International Law, the Association of American Law Schools, at the Annual Meeting of the Association.

NYLS COUNSELOR

Docket.....February and March, 1988

EVENTS

Mon.
Feb. 29th Phonathon Begins: Small Conference Room, 47 Worth
St., 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. See page 1 for further details. VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Wed.
March 2nd Exam packets sold to first year students. Packets can be purchased from the reserve desk in the Froessel Reading Room.

Tues.
March 8th Jewish Law Students Assoc. presents Yaakov Rubin, president of the Israel Bar Assoc. Topic: Criminal Justice in the Occupied Territories. 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m , in the Student Lounge.

Thurs.
March 24th NYLCA forum evening- "Sports and the Law-
Collective Bargaining V. Free Agency". NYLCA
Auditorium, 14 Vesey Street, 5 45 p.m.
See page 1 for further details.

Professor E. Donald Shapiro was interviewed intensively on the "Baby M" case. He appeared on the early and late news of Channel 9, Channel 11, and the Independent T.V. Network News on Wednesday, February 3. Also on Wednesday, February 3, he was interviewed by Newsday. On Thursday, February 4, CNN did a story on his Legal Medicine class which appeared on the CNN Headline News Network and the CNN Network.

Adjunct Professor Martin Minkowitz will speak at the New York State Bar Association Continuing Legal Education Program on Friday, March 25, 1988, at the Marriott Marquis in New York. His topic will be Medical Malpractice. In addition, he will speak on "Directors and Officers Liability Insurance" at the Practising Law Institute on Thursday, May 5, 1988 at the St. Moritz-on-the-Park Hotel in New York.

STAFF NEWS

Ms. Debbie Denhart is the new Receptionist/Administrative Assistant in the Dean's Office. Prior to joining the New York Law School staff, Ms. Denhart worked as a clerk in a company which performs executive health examinations.

Ms. Sheila Driskell is the new Word Processing Operator in Admissions. She has prior experience as a data entry service representative.

Ms. Tina Feller is the new Clerk Typist/CRT Operator in the Public Affairs Office. She previously worked as a training manager on restaurant policies and procedures and has received clerical training through a nonprofit employment program.

Ms. Carmen Gerena joins the Public Affairs Office as Alumni Assistant. She has been receiving clerical training through a nonprofit employment program and has had secretarial experience through the Summer Youth Employment Program.

Ms. Mildred Johnson has been appointed to the position of Administrative Assistant in the Financial Aid Office. She previously held the position of Alumni Assistant in the Public Affairs Office.

Mr. Joseph Lorrius is the new Driver for the Dean's Office. He has prior experience as a driver.

Mr. Wilbur Nunn received his B.A. degree in Human Services in December from the City College Center for Worker Education. Mr. Nunn has been employed at the Law School since March 1980 and is the Word Processing Coordinator in the Student Publications Office.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Chris Ranck, a member from Amnesty International will be speaking at New York Law School on Tuesday, March 22nd, at 5:00 p.m. in the Student Lounge. The purpose of the Lecture is to elaborate on programs and campaigns that are sponsored through the Amnesty International organization. Refreshments will be served and the entire New York Law School community is welcome. Contact Amnesty International at extension 846 for further details.

.....

NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL
PHONATHON '88

6th Floor
57 Worth Street
212-431-2800

Name _____
() Student, () Staff, () Faculty, () Alumni

Address/ _____
Dept. _____

	Times	10-11	11-12	12-1	1-2	2-3	3-4	5-8
Mon Feb. 29		_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Tues. March 1		_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Wed. March 2		_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Thurs. March 3		_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Mon. March 7		_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Wed. March 9		_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Thurs. March 10		_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Tues. March 15								4-8 _____
Wed. March 16								_____

Evening Sessions Only. 4-8