Note: Placement on any court roster is at the discretion of the local Administrative Judge and participation in a course that is approved does not guarantee placement on a local court roster. Pursuant to Part 146, court-based mediation rosters require both a combination of mediation training and experience mediating. In addition, some courts may require additional training and experience beyond Part 146's requirements. Acceptance on court rosters depends on a court's need for mediators at any given time and may include a court's need for mediators with specific case-type training or experience.

New York Law School's Initial Mediation Training explores the theory and practice of mediation. Participants will be introduced to the history and practice of mediation. Participants will apply the skills and techniques employed by mediators in small group exercises and role-plays.

This course is approved under Part 146 by the New York State Unified Court System's Office of ADR Program and satisfies Part 146 requirements, with at least 24 hours of initial mediation training. Successful participants will receive certification for Initial Mediation Training and will earn 24 CLE credits.

TOPICS

Approaches to Conflict • Barriers to Negotiated Agreements • Breaking Impasse • Ethical Constraints for Negotiators and Mediators • Exchanging Information • Finding Interests • How to Conduct an Opening Statement (and How Not to) • Issue Framing • Using Private Caucus
