Dear Tony

Spoke to Patricia after she returned from seeing you. She said you looked tired. Received your 3 letters. I trust you got a copy of Don's letter to Mancusi. Dan also called our legal contacts in Buffalo with regard to the other problem. Hope something will be worked out soon. Set us apart.

The statement of facts is being revised once again. So I won't send it up now. But some of the legal arguments are being written, and I enclosing the points which have been typed in draft form.

(As I'm writing this, I have one point in front of me (on the bag) and think it's great. Our Secretary is typing two more this afternoon. If they are finished they will go out to you today. Otherwise, next week.

There will be approximately 30 points, many of them in advanced stages of drafting, and many to be much larger than these. This will at least give you an idea of the job which is being done.

Let me have your comments. I am preparing yellowed jobs, etc in case you don't have your writing materials.

Will write again soon
