

10-25-2010

The Other Side of Reality: Fantasy Sports Dispute Resolution

New York Law School

Institute for INFORMATION LAW & POLICY
at New York Law School

and

New York Law School
Sports Law Society

invite you to attend a discussion on fantasy sports and the law:

The Other Side of Reality: Fantasy Sports Dispute Resolution

Have you ever wondered how you can merge your outside interests with your legal education? Are you curious about learning more about the intersection of fantasy sports and the law?

In 2009, Michael Stein '04 founded Fantasy Judgment, a fantasy sports dispute resolution business. Fantasy Judgment is an independent expert dispute resolution service for 7 different fantasy sports leagues. Fantasy Judgment has also recently reached an agreement with the NFL to offer its services on NFL.com's new Fantasy Marketplace. Mr. Stein has used his legal education and experience to provide an alternative dispute resolution service to an increasingly popular field of entertainment. You can learn more about Fantasy Judgment by visiting its Web site at www.fantasyjudgment.com. In addition to reigning as Chief Justice of Fantasy Judgment, Mr. Stein is also a complex-claims director for Chartis Insurance in New York.

Monday, October 25, 2010

11:45 a.m.–1:45 p.m.

Room W302

Lunch will be served.

If you are interested in attending, RSVP by October 20 to naomi.allen@nyls.edu.

