Honorable Roger J. Miner
U.S. Circuit Judge
Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit
Federal Courthouse
Foley Square

Dear Judge Miner:

When we last met in your chambers one of your clerks gave me a copy of your splendid review of the Second Circuit's work since the enactment of the Evarts Act. I think it is a splendid piece of work -- what a job it must have been to gather all those statistics!

Although I knew that this lecture is being published elsewhere, I am writing to inquire whether it might be possible to include excerpts from it in a publication of the United States Maritime Law Association, The MLA Report. This is distributed to the Associations 4000-odd members and I am enclosing a copy of the latest issue to give you some idea of its appearance. The abbreviated article would include your so very interesting analysis of the Second Circuit's activity in admiralty cases.

Perhaps one of your clerks could give me a ring to let me know if such a partial publication might be in order.

With renewed congratulations and my kindest personal regards,

Elliott
