Mr. Lewis Steel
Attorney at Law

Dear Mr. Steel:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter to the Commissioner of Correction, requesting to see Mr. Maynard under more appropriate circumstances than the official visiting hours and facilities. I should like to interview Mr. Maynard, but to wait for an hour, before you get to see him, then talk on a telephone which hardly works and will not allow you to understand every detail makes it next to impossible for an interview.

If you could help me to push my request through, I would appreciate it greatly. I would also like to see all the briefs exchanged in the course of the bail hearing and the appeal of Mr. Maynard.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Gitta Bauer

In the course of my assignments as foreign correspondent for the largest group of newspapers in Germany I covered the trials of Mr. William A. Maynard Jr., at present inmate at the Bronx House of Detention. At first the interest originated mainly from the fact, that Mr. Maynard was arrested in and extradited from Hamburg, Germany, but later I became interested in the case itself, which is now nearing its final stage, the appeal. I want

To keep my readers informed about the present situation of Mr. Maynard, having been granted bail and not been set free despite the fact, that bail was raised, I would like to interview him under circumstances more opportune for an interview than the official visiting hours and facilities. There you have to use a telephone which seldom works and over which you do not understand everything clearly.
I would appreciate it greatly, if you granted me the permission to see Mr. Maynard under more appropriate commissions. I would like to start the interviews after having come back from another assignment, after October 17.

(Gitta Bauer)

Hoping for an affirmative response, I remain,

Sincerely,

Dear Tony:

You know, that I covered your trials and wrote at great length about your case. Since it is nearing its final stage I should like to interview you and find out about your intentions. I do hope you will grant me a series of interviews; as you know, your case met with great interest in Germany.

At the same time I approached the Commissioner of Correction in New York City, requesting to grant the permission to see you under circumstances more appropriate for an interview than the official visiting hours and facilities.

Hoping that you are well I remain
