Dear John:

Knowing that your INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF BARRISTERS QUARTERLY is always on the look out for speeches which affect trial practice, I thought that you might be interested in "A Profession at Risk" delivered by Judge Roger Miner at a meeting of the Bar Association of Fulton, Montgomery, Saratoga and Schenectady Counties at Clifton Park earlier this year.

It is an excellent presentation and is written by a very good friend, the Honorable Roger J. Miner who is a Circuit Judge on the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and is an Adjunct Professor at New York Law School. The only distribution the speech has had thus far has been in the Trial Lawyers Quarterly which is published by the New York State Trial Lawyers Institute and which I believe is read by at least two or three lawyers.

It is really a fine piece and it deserves much wider distribution.

Sincerely yours,

E. Donald Shapiro
