Dear Judge and Jackie,

With much regret, Bebe and I cannot attend the Investiture on September 14. I had looked forward to witnessing your elevation to the Second Circuit; but, unfortunately, I will be in Philadelphia on business until late that Saturday afternoon.

I'm sure that this new "job" will bring you to the City more often and that we will be able once again to visit the Coach House or similar establishment.

My sincerest congratulations to you on this honor which only a few have attained or will ever attain.

With fond regards,
