Gerard Brewster	Utica to Flatbush Initiatives (President)	District 45 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Proposed map would cause district to lose schools, spiritual houses • Food desert, very little services for health

New York Census and Redistricting Institute

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Have gained a bit of traction but the proposed map would break up groups that work together and pits them against other groups that strive to stand up for communities
Mark Appel	Bridge Multicultural & Advocacy Project	District 45 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Diverse district that works together Supports map submitted by Council Member Farah Louis Expand district into East Flatbush, Flatlands, and Canarsie area Will lead to more senior centers, parks, healthcare institutions in district Predominately Caribbean and South Asian community – needs help and draft would negatively impact these communities
Council Member Justin Brannan	New York City Council – District 43	District 43 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bay Ridge, Dyker Heights, parts of Bath Beach, and Bensonhurst “in Brooklyn we like our pizza cut into slices, not our districts” Draft map divides historic communities of interest especially in southern Brooklyn Combining 38 and 43 = dividing districts Pitting communities of interest against each other and wiping out hard fought gains – not the path forward Growing Asian constituency Could accomplish creating new Asian district without turning all of southern Brooklyn upside down <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Don’t pit immigrant communities against each other Shouldn’t lead to dissolution of Red Hook and Sunset Park in 38 while slicing up Dyker Heights as afterthought With more precision, commission could create new Asian majority district without extinguishing the voting power of historically Latino communities – will submit map

New York Census and Redistricting Institute

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Emphasized listening to the people over experts living in other states and computer programs • Should keep in mind other city boundaries – school districts, community boards, police precincts, and sanitation garages • Keep communities of interest together
Council Member Jennifer Gutiérrez	New York City Council – District 34	District 34 – Brooklyn / Queens <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Draft map dilutes power of Latino population in North Brooklyn and Western Queens • 34 = Latino plurality • Proposed map – decrease in Latino population and increase in white population • Concerned about increase in NYCHA populations that 34 would now represent without guarantee of increased resources • Consider the cultural histories • Draft would pit these communities against each other • Concern re Latino voters and Black voters in 34 • Doesn't make sense to include parts of south Williamsburg bc that population is not there • Makes sense for 34 to absorb more of Ridgewood instead – more Latino
Council Member Rita Joseph	New York City Council – District 40	District 40 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Don't split up Kensington • Supports proposed map for 40 but with a few comments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure that western border at Kensington at E. 7th St. stays and protects vote of South Asian community that lives in Kensington
Faseer Kabeer?		Unite Kensington in one district <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bangladeshi and South Asian community • AALDEF has submitted community of interest map for this community • Currently divided and draft divides further

Ferse Akiba?	Desis Rising Up and Moving (DRUM)	Unite Kensington in one district <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • AALDEF submitted community of interest map for Kensington • Community has been there for many years • Elected council member for their community • Need to be in same district to fight for interests
Tanzin Azad	NYC Panel for Education Policies	District 39 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maintain lines for 39 so that South Asian community of the district remains intact • During pandemic, Bangladeshi community lacked language access
Council Member Crystal Hudson	New York City Council – District 35	District 35 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Don't change anything on proposed map for 35 • Represents Crown Heights, Prospect Heights, Fort Green, Clinton Hill, and a sliver of Bed-Stuy (sliver of Bed-Stuy will be moved into 36 on new draft) • Important to maintain and keep whole communities of interest and Bed-Stuy is one of those areas • Approves of this move • Prospect Heights remaining whole is also great • Keep neighborhoods united • Draft ensures what remains of Black population in 35 is retained

New York Census and Redistricting Institute

Assemblymember Marcela Mitaynes	Assembly District 51	District 38 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Keep 38 intact • Represents Red Hook, Sunset Park, part of Bay Ridge • Sunset Park is being gentrified • Culturally diverse, vibrant, working class, predominantly immigrant community • Community is gerrymandered among five state senators • Noted skewed Census numbers • Supports Unity Map – creating opportunity Asian district while keeping 38 intact • Don't destroy one immigrant community to create another
Senator Simcha Felder	17 th Senate District	District 44 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Disagrees with proposed map • Doesn't want 44 moved to Canarsie • Submitted written testimony
Yiatin Chu	Asian Wave Alliance (President)	District 43 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supports new Asian majority district • Sunset Park's and Bensonhurst's predominately Chinese populations have surged by 42% over past 10 years • Community has been ignored and exploited • Chinese families have been ignored by representatives
Yi Fang Chen	Asian Wave Alliance (VP)	District 43 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supports new Asian majority district • Frustrating to get voices heard • Current Sunset Park council member against their interests re performing arts school • Concerns are ignored • New Asian district is exactly what Asian community needs
Vincent Lu?		District 43 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supports new Asian majority district • Keep communities of interest together • Elected officials don't share their values • Education opportunities, public safety – representatives ignore • New district will give community real chance at representation

New York Census and Redistricting Institute

Rabbi David Neederman And Zev Steinmetz	United Jewish Organizations	District 33 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Keep community unified in 33 • Submitted written testimony twice • Close to 95% of their community is in District 33 and rest is in 36 • Draft would change that drastically • Yiddish population traditionally in south Williamsburg but now expanded into Bed-Stuy and Clinton Hill • Previous districting commission created community of interest district in 33 • Shared religion and culture as Hasidic Jews • Have strong voice in 33 • Splitting district would dilute voice • Noted hate crime incidents – vulnerable community – need one district
Debra Greif	Brooklyn Family Support Service Advisory Council (Chairperson)	District 47 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make maps easier to read for those with visual disabilities • Don't change 47 – have worked together for many years • Want Warbacks to Trump Houses? back in district • Current council member understands needs of those with disabilities • Agrees with Canarsie wanting to stay together
Christopher Greif		District 47 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make maps truly ADA accessible and up to date on computer • Want to keep 47 the same • As a transit advocate - agrees with Canarsie due to L train • Don't change many districts – look at where problems are • Keep people with disabilities in mind
Karen Blondel		District 38 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Red Hook • Concern re representation of NYCHA residents – blocked from information • Happy with draft returning them to district that includes Carroll Gardens and Gowanus

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Would put Red Hook with other small neighborhoods with similar interests • Do not want to be with Sunset Park • Has 50 testimonies to submit from Red Hook community
Salvatore Franchino		District 34 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Concern re Staten Island districts • Shouldn't empower voters who exclude residents • Lower population in Staten Island districts • Rest have overpacked districts • Outdated zoning code in Staten Island • Should expand districts into Manhattan and Brooklyn • Uphold one person, one vote • District 33 seems to be gerrymandered • Concern re council members getting to testify
Jim Tampakis	Marine Spears International – marine/industrial mechanical contractors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Red Hook • Noted work with Army Corps of Engineers during Hurricane Sandy • Red Hook and Sunset Park have similar interests on water and industrial manufacturing • Park Slope is not on water • Red Hook would not have any benefits in being with Park Slope
Elizabeth OuYang	APA Voice Redistricting Taskforce	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Keep Bensonhurst whole as much as possible • Currently divided into four districts • Adopt Unity Map – creates two strong APA plurality districts in Brooklyn <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 47 – 44.5% APA district entirely composed of Bensonhurst • 38 - 38% Asian and 36% Latino coalition district • Keeps Bensonhurst as whole as possible • And keeps longstanding minority district whole in 38 – shared interests - language access, immigration, healthcare, etc. • Requests release of other map that commission considered that didn't keep Staten Island's districts exclusively on Staten Island
Tonya Lewis Taylor	I Will Graduate Program	District 36 – maintaining lines District 45 – opposed to redistricting 45
