

9-27-2023

Culture: What Is It? How Does It Influence Negotiation and Mediation?

New York Law School

Culture: What Is It? How Does It Influence Negotiation and Mediation?

DATE

Wednesday September 27, 2023

TIME

5:30 p.m.–6:45 p.m. EDT

PLACE

In-person or online stream

Events Center, Second Floor
New York Law School
185 West Broadway, New York, NY 10013

COST

Free of charge

RSVP

www.nyls.edu/ADRsvp1

CLE

1.5 credits in Diversity, Inclusion and Elimination of Bias (NY transitional and nontransitional)

CLE Financial Aid Policy:

www.nyls.edu/cletuitionassistance

Culture is an aspect of the dispute resolution process that is gradually receiving more attention. But what exactly does culture mean in this context? Is cross-cultural dispute resolution a subject of interest only in the international setting, or is it also seen in the domestic context? Professor Ilhyung Lee of the University of Missouri will address these questions and encourage a more deliberate consideration of the culture component.

Ilhyung Lee

Director, Center for the Study of Dispute Resolution and Edward W. Hinton Professor of Law

WE ARE NEW YORK'S LAW SCHOOL

Since 1891