Memo re: Flag Room

Second Circuit Steering Committee on the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution

SECOND CIRCUIT COMMITTEE ON THE BICENTENNIAL
OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION

RECEIVED

December 1, 1986

DEC 04 1986

TO: Members, Steering/Coordinating Subcommittee
cc: Judge Oakes
Judge Meskill
Judge Motley
Judge Haight
FROM: Judge Pierce, Chairman

ROGER J. MINER
U.S. CIRCUIT JUDGE
NEW YORK, NEW YORK

For your information, I have been informed by Mr. Thomas Lipscomb of the Sons of the Revolution (S-R) that the Flag Room at Fraunces Tavern Museum, 54 Pearl Street, Manhattan (seating capacity: 100; standing: 200), may be available for our use, free of charge, given sufficient notice.

It could be that this could be a suitable site for a Colonial Era Music Concert, for example, or some other event.

Currently, in other rooms, the S-R is displaying a splendid exhibit "Capital City: New York After the Revolution."

Our contact at the Museum is Ms. Patricia Kesling, Director of Administration, (212) 425-1776.
