DIY

We are living in a remix culture—a time where artists appropriate old forms of media into new forms, using technology and ingenuity.

Our presentation will bring together panelists from both the creative and legal side to address the question: why is it that remix/DIY art always equals infringement? We will also explore the tension between the makers and the lawyers of many creative industries, including music, art, user-generated content, and fashion.

RSVP by March 30 to Naomi Allen at Naomi.Allen@nyls.edu.
