Dear Roger:

Congratulations on your elevation to the Court of Appeals, and I wish you a long and interesting career. I am sure you will make a fine appellate judge. Please extend my best to Jackie. I regret that I cannot be present at your investiture and reception on September 14 due to the fact that I must attend the 50th wedding anniversary of old friends. I hope I will see you often now that you will be a frequent visitor to Foley Square.

Warmest regards.

Dear Judge Miner:

I deeply appreciate receiving the invitation to your investiture on Saturday, September 14. While my duties will require that I remain in Washington over that weekend, I assure you that all of us here at the Justice Department will be thinking of you as you take your oath of office.

The judicial selection process is often a mind-boggling affair and those of us involved in it are often frustrated by the paperwork, politics and process that go into each selection. The only gratifying part is that occasionally we have an opportunity to see a learned jurist and a fine man confirmed as a federal judge. This is certainly one of those instances.

I very much enjoyed having the opportunity to visit with you in Washington and know that you will enjoy a fine and distinguished career on the Second Circuit. As always I hope that you will never hesitate to contact me if I can be of any service.

With warmest regards I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Roger:

I very much regret not to be able to attend your swearing in ceremony at Albany on September 14 due to a conflicting prior engagement of long standing in the State of Maine.

Once again, however, I wish to extend heartiest congratulations and very best wishes to you and your family upon this happy occasion.

I also want to congratulate you upon your good judgment in insisting that the ceremony be in Albany rather than Foley Square. You perhaps know that there is repeated precedence for your decision. Every Second Circuit Judge from Connecticut for at least the last 60 years has been sworn in in Connecticut; this includes Judges Swan, Clark, Hincks, Smith, Anderson, Timbers, Meskill, Newman and Winter. The only three Second Circuit Judges appointed from Vermont (Judges Chase, Waterman and Oakes) were sworn in in Vermont so you are in good company! Best wishes and I shall be thinking about you on September 14,

Sincerely,
Bill
