Several weeks ago you received a news release about a series of 17 posters designed by Julia Precht, a California graphic artist. The posters are part of our public education program. One poster is prepared for each week of the Convention depicting in headline form an important event of the week. The first ten posters have already been received by your Committee and distributed to each federal courthouse in the Circuit. For your interest, we enclose the ten posters. You will receive the last seven as part of the regular mailing.

If you would like additional copies of the posters or know of a school or institution who might enjoy having them, please contact Peninah Petruck, Assistant Circuit Executive in Charge of Public Programs at 791-0977.
