Dear Judge:

Thanks for your recent note and article. I am thrilled that you are feeling strong enough to write, and critically at that.

Since we last spoke, I have moved to Tel Aviv to manage the international practice of a medium-sized Israeli law firm. My new address and telephone number is as above.

Once again I can offer you my services as a tour guide, should you make your way to the Holy Land. In the meantime, best wishes to Jackie and you for happiness and good health.

Yours,

Norman
