Dear Lee:

Many thanks for the article on the proper usage of "which" and "that." It is an excellent article on the subject but, as you know, my preference is for the "leaner structures" to replace the clauses whenever possible.

We are busy in chambers getting out the decisions that remain from the 1995-96 term. However, the 1996-97 term is approaching quickly. Would you believe that I already have received the cases for the September sitting! I have managed to get some days off during the summer, but that will be coming to an end shortly.

We expect to move into our new chambers in the Foley Square Courthouse (Room 2202) sometime in the fall. The renovation work there is going very slowly. I suspect the reason is that the government spent all its money on the Pearl Street Courthouse.

It sounds like you are doing some interesting work, but the most important thing is that you seem to be happy with your life.

Jackie joins me in sending best regards to Tain and you. I hope that we can get together sometime in the fall.

Sincerely,

"The Judge"
