Dear Roger:

In late June, I committed myself in writing to solemnize the marriage of a daughter of a native Columbian, whose practice is in New York, scheduled for one o'clock on Saturday, the 14th of September.

When I received and responded to the invitation to your installation, I never thought to check. Anne and I are very disappointed; however, we are committed to a family, some of whose guests are coming from abroad.

You and Jackie know that we shall be with you in spirit and I repeat what I said several weeks ago - this is not the last rung on your ladder of success and scholarly accomplishment as a modern jurist.

Sincerely,

WEZ:ab

Warren E. Zittell
