

4-23-2015

Masterclass: POST-DATA BREACH LITIGATION WITH JOHN SCORDO '88

New York Law School

WE ARE NEW YORK'S LAW SCHOOL

MASTER CLASS

Thursday, April 23, 2015

12:50 p.m. - 1:50 p.m.

New York Law School
Room W402

LUNCH: Sandwiches and salad will be provided

No RSVP required

POST-DATA BREACH LITIGATION

WITH

JOHN SCORDO '88

John Scordo is a partner at K&L Gates LLP who focuses his practice on data privacy and protection, insurance coverage, and complex commercial litigation. He counsels clients on data privacy and protection, best practices, breach preparation and response, and post-breach regulatory liability and litigation.

He has extensive experience in the handling of litigation and the negotiation of claims/coverages under all types of insurance. He is a commercial arbitrator for the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and is well versed in the numerous data security and insurance coverage issues impacting the financial services industry. Mr. Scordo has also represented both purchasers and suppliers in disputes involving large commercial supply contracts and the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC), and defendants in personal injury/mass tort cases.