RETIREMENT PARTY FOR PROFESSOR ROTHSCHILD

A retirement party will be held for Professor Donald P. Rothschild at 4 p.m. on Tuesday, December 10 in the Large Conference Room (former faculty lounge) on the fifth floor of 47 Worth Street.

Professor Rothschild has been part of NYLS since 1987 and has held workshops and taught courses on Alternative Dispute Resolution, Commercial Transactions, Employment Law and Labor Law. He also helped design our lawyering course and was one of the key figures in the collective bargaining team with District Council 37 and our support staff.

Everyone is welcome to attend the party. Please call the Office of Development and Public Affairs to R.S.V.P. at ext. 2800.

PUBLICATION PARTY FOR PROFESSOR CONE

Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton, Dean Wellington, and the New York Law School Board of Trustees will host a party to celebrate the publication of Professor Sydney M. Cone, III's new book International Trade in Legal Services, on Monday, January 13, at 5:30 p.m. in The Dining Room.

Everyone interested in attending should contact the office of Development and Public Affairs at ext. 2800.

HOLIDAY TOY DRIVE

New York Law School will be collecting toys and/or donations for the purchase of toys. This year's recipient will be Children's Friends for Life, a not-for-profit organization which helps HIV/AIDS infected patients.

Toys may be dropped off by the security desk in the student lounge at 47 Worth Street.

She will discuss "New Year's Eve in Times Square: The World's Biggest New Year's Eve Party." The breakfast is open to the public, but reservations are appreciated. Please call ext. 2115 to reserve a seat.

SAVE THE DATE

MID-YEAR RECEPTION

A reception will be held for all mid-year graduates on Thursday, January 16, at 4 p.m. in The Dining Room. For further information, call Jeannette Richardson at ext. 2806.

HUMAN RESOURCES REMINDERS

- Anyone who did not receive a flexible benefits program package in the mail should contact Human Resources at ext. 2131.
- Anyone who has not yet handed in forms for the new medical, dental and vision plans should drop them off in the office of Human Resources as soon as possible. Extra forms are available for those who need them.

The Office of Student Services would like to wish everyone good luck on finals and a happy, safe vacation.

Career Services Update

For applications or more information on any of these opportunities, please contact the Office of Career Services on the fifth floor at 53 Worth Street, or call us at 431-2345.

FELLOWSHIPS

● The Rockefeller Foundation - Warren Weaver Fellowship Program

This program provides fellows with first-hand experience in the field of philanthropy through a one-year residency at the Rockefeller Foundation offices in New York. The program is open to students who have graduated since 1992 or who will graduate in December. The start date of the fellowship will be approximately September 15, 1997. DEADLINE: February 28, 1997.

● Northwestern School of Law of Lewis & Clark College - Natural Resources Law Institute Fellowship application DEADLINE is March 4, 1997.

SUMMER INTERNSHIPS

● New Jersey Summer Public Interest Legal Intern Program

Legal Services of New Jersey (LSNJ) will sponsor a summer intern program that places first and second year law students in public interest legal organizations in New Jersey. Applications and further details are available. The DEADLINE is February 14, 1997, however, students are encouraged to apply as soon as possible, as hiring decisions will be made on a rolling basis.

● New York Lawyers for the Public Interest (NYLPI) - Summer Internship

NYLPI is a not-for-profit public interest law firm with summer internship openings for first and second-year law students. Students work one-on-one with the attorneys, attend meetings and court appearances, and are fully integrated into the life of the office. Student Intern responsibilities include working on complaints, briefs and motions, conducting client interviews and helping staff attorneys respond to telephone requests for legal advice. NYLPI does not have funding to pay student salaries, but it does meet the matching requirements of fellowships or work-study programs, where possible.

● Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI) - Summer Internship Program

PILI recruits law students nationwide, funds positions which would otherwise not exist, insures quality supervision by the legal staff at the participating agencies and provides an educational structure for interns. The educational program includes regularly scheduled seminars on a range of public interest law issues. It is the hope of the founders and directors of PILI that this opportunity will reinforce a life-long participation in public interest law. Applications and further details are available.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY LEGAL CAREER SYMPOSIUM

New York University School of Law will hold their annual Public Interest Career Symposium on February 13 and 14, 1997. It will feature panel discussions, information tables for individual meetings with organization representatives, and interviews with employers seeking students for summer or entry-level positions. More than 100 public sector organizations will participate. Further information will be made available as soon as it comes in.

STUDENTS OF COLOR

● Minority Fellowship in Environmental Law

The New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) and the Association of the Bar of the City of New York is sponsoring a Minority Fellowship in Environmental Law. Fellows are awarded a $5,000 stipend to spend the summer of 1997 working on legal matters for a government environmental agency or public interest environmental organization in New York State. Applications and further details are available. The DEADLINE is December 16.

● City Bar Summer Fellow Program: Take Advantage of this Opportunity!

This program is offered by the Association of the Bar of the City of New York. It is designed to address the underrepresentation of attorneys of color in New York City law firms. Participation in the program enables students to experience work in a law firm or corporation as a summer associate. Applications are available. Application DEADLINE is February 3, 1997. If you are interested, start the process now. You will need an official undergraduate transcript. Order it as soon as possible because this takes time.

● Special Telecommunications Fellowship

The Teleport Communications Group, Inc., a major telecommunications company located in Staten Island has an internship opportunity for full-time work during the summer of 1997 and part-time work during the following academic year. The intern would work on litigation projects, legislative issues, and transactional work. Further information is available. The DEADLINE is January 24, 1997.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE FOR THE ASSOCIATION OF THE BAR OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

A Student Representative is needed for the Law Students Perspectives Committee of The Association of the Bar of the City of New York. The responsibilities would include attending monthly meetings and participating in student oriented programs. Interested students should see John Downer in the Office of Career Services.

WINTER BREAK HOURS

The office will have special hours over winter break. Starting Friday, December 6, and ending January 10, 1997 the office hours will be 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Appointments after 5 p.m. will be available upon request. Walk-in appointments will be held from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m., Monday through Thursday, except for the week of Christmas.

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

New York Law School's Career Services Office participates in a nationwide law school reciprocity program. Reciprocity allows students wishing to seek opportunities outside the New York Metropolitan area to visit another participating law school's career services office in their desired geographic location and use the services for up to three months. Reciprocity policies vary from school to school. If you would like more information on the program and other law school's policies, see the Reciprocity Policy Binder in the Career Services Resource Room.
