GALLERY EXHIBITION & RECEPTION PAINTED BLACK

On May 2, the art exhibit "Painted Black" will open in the Shepard and Ruth K. Broad Student Center. The exhibit compares paintings in which black is used in different ways. Participating artists include Power Boothe, Maurice Colton, Casimira Rachfal and Joan Witek.

The student center is open for viewing of the exhibit from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. seven days a week. The exhibition will run through June 13. A closing reception with the artists will be held on May 28 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in the student center.

REUNIONS

If you see NYLS alumni roaming the halls it is because this is the time of year for reunions at NYLS. In the next few weeks, graduates of the classes of 1951/52, 1977, 1982, and 1987 will return to the school to celebrate their reunions. The class of 1992 will celebrate at a restaurant in the neighborhood.

*This is the last Counselor of the academic year.
Good luck on exams and congratulations graduates.*

NYLS WHITE SOX LITTLE LEAGUE

For the second year, NYLS is proud to sponsor a neighborhood Little League team. Everyone is welcome to cheer on New York Law School's White Sox this summer. All games are played on the ball fields in Battery Park City. The schedule is as follows:

May 10:	1:30 p.m.
May 17:	12:30 p.m.
May 31:	1:30 p.m.
June 7:	12:30 p.m.
June 14:	10:45 a.m.
June 21:	12:30 p.m.

Faculty Activities

Professor Randolph Jonakait recently appeared on "Miller's Law" on Court TV discussing the Inspector General's report on the FBI Laboratories. Professor Jonakait has also been invited to address the New York State Supreme Court Justices on recent developments in evidence and criminal procedure.

Professor Arthur Leonard's article on the 1st Circuit's decision in Abbott v. Bragdon, titled "Court Finds Asymptomatic HIV Infection Covered Under ADA," was published in 6 Employment Testing Law & Policy Reporter 55 (April 1997).

On April 28, Professor Nadine Strossen delivered the William O. Douglas Lecture at Whitman College in Walla Walla, Washington. On May 1, she lectured at Pennsylvania State University in State College, PA. Her latest publications are "Due Process Rights of Public School Students," 1996 Michigan Law & Policy Review 315; and "Just Cause: Why We Need an Independent Judiciary," in the April 17, issue of the E-Zine Intellectual Capital. On April 30, she was interviewed on NBC-TV's "Nightside" program, debating the proposed flag desecration amendment to the Constitution with General Patrick Brady, Chair of the Citizens' Flag Alliance. Professor Strossen will be a guest on "The Late, Late Show" with Tom Snyder, on CBS-TV, on May 22.

Margaret Perrin, the Cataloger at the Mendik Library, has been appointed to the Collections and Technical Services Advisory Group of the SUNY/OCLC Network for a two-year term. The group, which consists of six librarians from around New York State, will meet for the first time on May 16th at SUNY headquarters in Albany.

SUNY/OCLC is our regional network and covers the entire state of New York. It is part of OCLC, an online cataloging utility which maintains the largest bibliographic database in the world, containing almost 40 million records representing the collections of over 22,000 libraries throughout the United States and the world.

Career Services Update

SUMMER HOURS

The Office of Career Services summer hours will be Monday - Friday 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. Evening students who are unable to come to the Office during these hours can contact us to arrange for evening appointments.

OFFICE CLOSING

The Office of Career Services will be open from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. on May 23 due to the Memorial Day Holiday.

CAREER SERVICES HEARS STUDENTS

The Office of Career Services recently conducted a number of "focus groups" to obtain feedback from students about the Office. We want to thank the students who participated for their suggestions. Based on the information we received, we will work to provide as much information as possible to students through on-line communication. We also plan to alter the first year Professional Development Seminar Series. Finally, we will provide more forums for students to learn about career opportunities available to them, in the form of career fairs and other special programs. Anyone who wished to share ideas may contact Deb Howard, Director at ext. 2345.

MOOT COURT REGISTRATION DEADLINE APPROACHES

All those interested in participating in the intramural Froessel Moot Court Competition are invited to register quickly. Forms are located outside the Moot Court Office on the 8th floor of A bldg., Room 803. The deadline for registration is May 21. Membership in Moot Court helps develop brief writing and oral advocacy skills.

A video tape of the general information meeting, which was held on May 1, is available in the library for those who were unable to attend. Any further questions should be directed to the Moot Court Office at ext. 2175.
