

9-21-1992

Counselor, September 21, 1992

New York Law School

Counselor

A newsletter for The New York Law School Community / September 21, 1992

FROESSEL MOOT COURT FINALS

The Froessel Moot Court Finals will be held on Monday, September 21, in the Ernst Stiefel Reading Room at 6 p.m.

The Judges will be:

Harry H. Wellington, NYLS; William Kunstler; Justice Felice Shea, NY Supreme Court; Justice Michael Corriero, NY Supreme Court.

All are welcome to attend!

CAREER SERVICES UPDATE

STUDENT JOB SEARCH MANUAL

The Office of Career Services' Job Search Manual is available. Information in this booklet includes strategies for a successful job search, how Career Services can help you, and job search advice from recent graduates. Please pick up a copy from the Handout Shelves in the Resource Room.

NYLS-LEGAL AID SOCIETY FELLOWSHIPS

Third-year students with a commitment to serving the disadvantaged and an interest in the criminal justice system may apply for The New York Law School-Legal Aid Society Fellowship. A three-year commitment is required. The student selected for this position will spend the Spring semester and the three years following graduation in either the Criminal Defense Division or Criminal Appeals Bureau of the Legal Aid Society.

Submit five copies of each of the following to Career Services by 5:00 p.m. on Friday.

October 2, 1992:

- ☛ Your resume
- ☛ Unofficial copy of your transcript
- ☛ Statement of Interest (addressed to The New York Law School Legal Aid Society Fellowship Committee)
- ☛ Writing sample and an indication of interest in one or both divisions (the Criminal Appeals Division requires that you are in the top 25%)

There will be no extensions!

FIFTH ANNUAL NALP/NAPIL PUBLIC INTEREST LAW CAREER FAIR

Students interested in participating in the Fifth Annual NALP/NAPIL Public Interest Law Career Fair from October 16-18 should see Beth Fishkin in the Office of Career Services' Resource Room.

Note: You are responsible for submitting your resumes directly to employers in which you are interested. You should mail your resumes to employers no later than September 25.

STAFF UPDATE

Sondra Downing was promoted to Senior Registration Assistant in the Registrar's Office during that Office's administrative reorganization.

Judy Elliot-Pugh joined the Law School community as Assistant Director of Financial Aid. She has worked at New York University, where she began as a Client Service Representative in the graduate division in 1990, and was promoted to Assistant Director of Financial Aid at the School of Law in 1991. Her past experience also includes three years at Chubb Group of Insurance Companies as a Senior Commercial Lines Underwriter and four years at People Express Airlines as a Customer Service Manager/Team Leader. A graduate of Point Park College in Pittsburgh, Judy is currently enrolled in New York University's School of Continuing Education where she is working on a Human Resources Management diploma.

Cheryl Gadsden has been promoted to Receptionist and Administrative Assistant in the Registrar's Office during that Office's administrative reorganization.

Hillary Mantis, Associate Director of Career Services, has been appointed to the planning board of the ABA Committee on Career Issues. As part of her duties, she will be editing the revised version of Changing Jobs: A Handbook for Lawyers (ABA 1989).

FACULTY NEWS

Professor Michael Botein's article "U.S. Telecommunications in the World Market: Changing Policy Considerations" appeared in the New York Law Journal on September 3.

Professor Karen Gross has agreed to serve on the Advisory Board of a new law review that is being sponsored by the American Bankruptcy Institute and which will be housed at St. John's Law School. The inaugural issue will be thematic and will address single asset real estate cases. She served as a National Advisor to the Bankruptcy Task Force of the Ninth Circuit Gender Bias Task Force. The Ninth Circuit Task Force recently issued a 181 page report on its findings, and Professor Gross' piece "A Re-Vision of the Bankruptcy System: New Images of Individual Debtors" was cited. During the summer, Bankruptcy Court Decisions did a profile on her scholarship with particular attention to her work on women in debt. Professor Gross was also recently interviewed by the Associated Press on bankruptcy filing rates and the Cleveland Plain Dealer on Judge Lifland and judicial activism in bankruptcy cases.

Professor Nadine Strossen lectured at the University of Kansas on "Hate Crimes and Codes of Conduct" and at the University of Kansas Law School on recent Supreme Court decisions on September 2. She spoke at a conference on Developments in Church/State law, American Jewish Committee, on "The Rehnquist Court's Statist Agenda" on September 10.

We're sorry to inform you that Professor Stephen J. Massey passed away September 18.

The wake will be held Monday, Sept. 21 at Campbell Funeral Home, 1076 Madison Avenue at 81st Street from 2pm-5pm and from 7pm-9pm.

The funeral will be Tuesday, Sept. 22 at the Holy Trinity Church, 213 West 82nd Street at 10 am.

Condolences may be sent to Mrs. Kathleen Massey, 470 West End Avenue, Apt 13E, New York, NY 10024.

CALENDAR

Monday, Sept. 21

Froessel Moot Court Finals
Ernst Stiefel Reading Room
⊗ 6:00 p.m.

Wednesday, Sept. 23

Office of Career Services'
Judicial Clerkship Panel
Ernst Stiefel Reading Room
⊗ 5:00 p.m.
For further information: ☎ x345

Monday, Sept. 28

Rosh Hashanah
No Day or Evening classes

Tuesday, Sept. 29

Rosh Hashanah
No Day Classes
Please Note: Tuesday Evening classes will meet.

Tuesday, Oct. 6

Yom Kippur
No Evening Classes
Please Note: Tuesday Day classes will meet.

Wednesday, Oct. 7

Yom Kippur
No Day or Evening Classes

The next issue of Counselor will be distributed on Monday, Oct. 5

The deadline date for submitting items is Thurs. Oct. 1, to Pamela A. Frohne, ext. 805, A-614